Det smukke vinterlandskab

Nu, hvor vi er på vej ind i foråret og sommeren, så bør vi ikke kun prise disse varme, smukke årstider. Vinteren bliver for mange noget, der blot skal overstås, og hvor man hver dag stirrer ud ad vinduet og gyser af kulden og mørket derude.

Men vinteren kan også være behagelig og smuk. Er vi heldig oplever vi, at sneen falder i tykt lag og udsmykker vores landskaber til noget, der er som taget ud af et eventyr. Men det er virkelighed. Varmt tøj på, støvler og gå så en tur i den nyfaldne sne.

Det er en fantastisk oplevelse. Sneen dæmper lydene, og du hører kun den knirkende lyd af dine egne støvler i sneen. Sneen forenkler landskabets farver, og den tavse sne virker helsende i den ellers alt for forjagede hverdag.

The beautiful winter landscape

As we head into spring and summer, we should not just be celebrating these warm, beautiful seasons. For many, winter becomes something that just needs to get through, and where you every day stare out the window and shudder at the cold and darkness out there.

But winter can also be pleasant and beautiful. If we are lucky, we experience the snow falls in thick layers and decorates our landscapes into something that is like taken out of a fairy tale. But it is reality. Warm clothes on, boots and then go for a walk in the freshly fallen snow.

It is an amazing experience. The snow muffles the sounds, and you only hear the creaking sound of your own boots in the snow. The snow simplifies the colours of the landscape, and the silent snow has a healing effect in the otherwise too hectic everyday life.
